RESOLUTION NUMBER 1090

A RESOLUTION TO NEGOTIATE THE IMPLEMENTATION OF AN AUTOMATED SPEED ENFORCEMENT SYSTEM WITH BREKFORD CORPORATION OF HANOVER, MARYLAND

WHEREAS, the City has a vested interest in the safety of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, the Maryland State Legislature has authorized the installation of automated speed enforcement systems to improve pedestrian safety in and around school safety zones; and

WHEREAS, the City conducted an exhaustive search in an effort to select the appropriate vendor to provide these systems; and

WHEREAS, after reviewing numerous proposals, City staff came to the conclusion that Brekford Corporation of Hanover, Maryland could best meet the needs of the City; and

WHEREAS, the results of this exhaustive search were presented to City Council during an advertized public worksession on February 15, 2012, and

WHEREAS, the total expense of the program will be determined by the total number of violations, with proceeds covering expenses. NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, that the City Manager be authorized to negotiate a contract with Brekford Corporation of Hanover, Maryland to provide automated speed enforcement services to the City.

PASSED by the Council of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, at its regular meeting of March 26, 2012.

Judith F. Davis, Mayor

ATTEST:

Cindy Murray, City Clerk
