Weekly Report

Week Ending July 22, 2016

ADMINISTRATION:

- Staff prepared materials for the Monday July 25th Council work-session on Contribution and Recognition Groups. In addition to emails being sent to all FY17 Contribution, Recognition and Civic group applicants notifying them of the meeting, staff hand delivered information packets to all members of AAB and PRAB.
- Director attended mid-summer employee appreciation party held on Sunday, July 17
- Gathering information and dates for 'Step it Up Fitness Events' happening in Greenbelt to send to County Executive Baker's office. Staff has several activities in August but will also be offering Active Aging Week in September and the Gobble Wobble in November.
- Director attended the very popular skate night held at SHLRC last week. Children and adults alike were in the gym enjoying listening to the music and going around time and time again, on their skates provided by M-NCPPC skate-mobile.
- The Springhill Lake Recreation Center hosted a Repass for Journey Butler, daughter of Brian and Camille Butler. Our thoughts and prayers remain with the Butler family.
- Staff member serving on the Program Review Committee for the Frostburg State University Recreation and Parks Program participated in meeting to review and prepare annual report.
- Spoke with Baltimore County staff regarding curriculum for Park Ranger training being offered through the Maryland Recreation and Parks Association in the coming year. Staff plans to send Parks Rangers to the training to augment training offered through the Department.
- Staff is working to coordinate and schedule gym floor re-finishing work at the Youth Center and the Springhill Lake Recreation during the Fall.
- Assisted the City of Annapolis with a facility rules survey they are conducting. Greenbelt will receive a copy of the survey results once they are completed.

YOUTH CENTER/ SPRINGHILL LAKE/PARK RANGERS/GREENBELT KIDS:

- Summer Camps are now mid-way through the 2016 season! Kinder Camp's theme for this session is Dr. Seuss! Our youngest campers enjoy many stories, activities, and crafts all inspired by the many wonderful books written by Dr. Seuss. Camp Pine Tree spent this week here in Greenbelt. Our campers enjoyed swim lessons, sports, group games, arts & crafts, free swim and a visit from an Animal Fear Factor Show. Camp Pine Tree 2 campers enjoyed the annual camp sleepover this week and woke up to a wonderful breakfast, courtesy of Ms. Gaye. Creative Kids Camp is now working on their third production of "Summer Circus". CKC campers are busy with daily classes in dance, drama, music, art, and writing, along with twice weekly trips to the pool. The next two sessions of Circus Camp are tailored to campers ages 10-16, so some more challenging circus skills will be included the next few weeks! Camp YOGO continued their travels this week. They started the week with a tour of Nationals Park. A trip to Cunningham Falls State Park and Chesapeake Beach Water Park, along with some time here in Greenbelt made for a full week for our YOGO campers.
- 2016 Summer Camp registration continues this week. Camps are filling up, so register soon if you have plans to send your child to camp.
- Recreation Centers have been busy with camps and summer drop-in programs.
- Free Summer Fun Runs at BAP continue this week. Runs are every Thursday evening through 8/26 at 7pm. Registration takes place in the YC parking lot prior to each Thursday event.
- Staff are working on planning Fall programs and publication of the 2016 Fall Activity Guide.

AQUATIC AND FITNESS CENTER:

- Session 2 of the children's weekday ended July 22. Session 3 of weekday will run August 2-12.
- Attended weekly meeting with Assistant Director.
- The hot tub received its bi-weekly cleaning.
- Family Fun night on July 15 was a huge success with over 30 families (100+ people) in attendance!

- GAFC received a HUGE donation of swim diapers! They have been sorted and stored according to size. The handful of pull ups (non-swim diapers) included in the donation were given to several families who had appropriate age children and were in the right place at the right time.
- Staff member attended MRPA summer membership meeting.
- Interviews will be conducted July 26 for the Administrative Assistant position at GAFC.

ARTS:

- Creative Kids Camp, Clay at the End of the Day, and the summer stagecraft teen internship program are underway. Quarterly classes running this session include: Family Ceramics; Sew for Charity; Figurative Hand-Building; Paper Resist Techniques for ceramic surface decoration; Ceramics Open Studio; and Levels 1/2 and 3/4 potter's wheel.
- Ongoing tasks include: scouting artists for the Festival of Lights and for exhibition programming; processing Art and Craft Fair applications; hiring and training new special event technicians; and developing FY17 programs.

THERAPUTIC RECREATION:

- Staff interviewed a current counselor to work as an inclusion counselor for sessions 4 and 5 if needed.
- The TR staff met on Thursday morning to discuss the campers with special needs and get the aftercare schedule worked out for next week. Staff also discussed the needs for session 4 and 5. A couple more campers were brought to the attention of the TR Supervisor. These children will be observed in the next few days.
- Nine seniors travelled to Arundel Mills on Thursday for their monthly shopping trip.
