Greenbelt Recreation Department Weekly Report

Week Ending June 5, 2015

ADMINISTRATION:

- On June 3, the Director along with two students from Greenbelt Elementary School, were selected to join First Lady, Michelle Obama, in her harvest of the White House Kitchen Garden. It was a wonderful experience; be sure to view the video on White House site of recorded live-stream for June 3 with regards to Lets Move. The Director and the two Greenbelt Elementary School students, Joshua May and Isabella Martins, will attend the June 8 City Council meeting to share their exciting day at the White House.
- The NLC Health and Community Wellness Program Director contacted the Department requesting information on some of our success stories to possibly be published due to all of the great work we have done in the City. With the help of several City staff, the requested information on walking and walkability success stories was submitted to the National League of Cities (NLC).
- Submitted the application for the Lets Move Cities, Towns and Counties (LMCTC) All-Stars. The purpose of LMCTC All-Stars is to engage and support five gold medal cities and counties in pursuing more advanced and sustainable strategies to address childhood obesity.

YOUTH CENTER/ SPRINGHILL LAKE/PARK RANGERS:

- For Grad Night, the final count was in the neighborhood of 390 grads and was VERY successful. The students were in high spirits throughout the night. Committee volunteers were well organized and very helpful during the entire event. Youth Center and Greenbelt Aquatic and Fitness Center staff did a wonderful job taking initiative with any task that needed attention.
“The staff at the Youth Center all did an excellent job and should be commended.” – Rich Moore, Grad Night Committee Chair
- Received a donation from Franklin Park to support the Bike Rodeo for Kids, scheduled for Saturday, June 20 at the Springhill Lake Recreation Center.
- Met with a Greenbelt Library representative at the Springhill Lake Recreation Center to discuss implementation of a summer reading drop-in program at the Center beginning in the last week of June.
- Continued planning and preparation for Summer Camps, Greenbelt Day Weekend, Bike Rodeo for Kids and the Greenbelt Bike Connection.

COMMUNITY CENTER:

- There are currently three Center Leader shifts open.
- GATE has moved into the front lobby display case for June. Check it out!
- Coordinator provided logistics for Greenbelt Day weekend events.
- Supervisor continued to field calls and emails in regard to Kitchen rentals. Since posting ads on two websites, there have been 12 inquiries with 3 arranging meetings to tour the Kitchen.
- A curious squirrel spent time exploring the Greenbelt News Review space earlier this week. When several volunteer editors/reporters arrived and insisted, he helped them proof the paper. He then chose to head for the side exterior door which was propped open to encourage his exit.
- Tickets are now on sale for the Camp Scholarship show Message to Tomorrow on Saturday, 06/20 2pm & 4:30pm. $5, buy your tickets today!
