- Planned and attended a Virtual Recreation Center meeting with Public Information staff. Many thanks are extended to Bev Palau & Jen Sterling for their collaboration and talents! Please visit the Virtual Recreation Center sometime soon!
- Distributed Virtual Recreation Center “yard signs” throughout Greenbelt, promoting the Virtual Recreation Center. We are reaching out on social media, in the News Review, and via the city website as well, hoping to connect with all Greenbelt residents.
- Staff continued to add new content to Virtual Recreation Center. Staff are re-inventing classic special events, creating new special events, and adding content to the weekly specialty areas of Preschool Distance Learning, Wellness, Outdoors, Visual Arts, Virtual Field Trips, Greenbelt Trivia, Fitness, and Performing Arts. Staff are also collaborating with community groups and adding their content to the VRC.
- Mom’s Morning Out staff organized a car parade to celebrate a student’s birthday. Birthdays are important events for preschoolers and everyone loves to celebrate! Class member cars were decorated with balloons as they paraded by the home of the birthday boy. Social distancing was maintained and everyone enjoyed the parade!
- Moms Morning Out students met via Zoom for a lesson on parts of a plant, plant life cycle, and a plant art project. Parents received an email with on-line learning tips and Zoom protocol for the class. Our young students did a great job transitioning to virtual learning and enjoyed seeing their peers. Congratulations to our Preschool staff for transitioning to the on-line learning platform!

- Prepared budget materials to provide data for anticipated financial impacts of city response to COVID-19.
- Two new videos with our dance program instructors were provided this week to enhance program content on city website and Facebook pages. Move this Beat, an original Greenbelt Recreation production, guided participants through movement activities to simple musical rhythms. Move this Book, another original Greenbelt Recreation production, featured a story accompanied by movement activities to bring the book to life for young dancers.
- Dance program continued to provide dance classes via Zoom.
- Staff met to evaluate our first virtual special event, Camp at Home Day.
- Plans are progressing for a new approach to Celebration of Spring, our annual mid-May spring themed event. Staff are planning for new ways to engage the community and provide a fun community event while embracing the inherent limitations on the ban on large group gatherings. Plans include a Celebration of Spring music playlist, E-sport tournament featuring NBA 2, Art Projects, a Magic Show, and more.
- Staff are producing videos to include in our Virtual Recreation Center (VRC). A fourth Seven-Song Sing-Along will go live later this week. Other videos, from various staff members, will be provided soon.
- Staff are working with CARES to promote and support the Chalk Art event for Children's Mental Health Week during the second week of May. We are inviting children and adults to write positive messages in chalk and then submit the images to the Mental Health Association of MD (MHAMD).
