CITY NOTES

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending March 12

Judye Hering began publicizing the spring session for the virtual GED class. Class is held on Tuesday and Thursday from 10 am – 12 pm. Students need to contact CARES for registration information.

Liz Park attended the 17th Annual Child, Adolescent and Young Adult Services Conference: Integrating Clinical Intervention with Behavioral Health Approach. The conference was sponsored by the University of Maryland School of Medicine's Training Center.

Liz Park attended two workshops offered by the University of Maryland's School of Social Work, Institute for Innovation and Implementation. They were "Maximizing Telehealth Services to Reach Youth and Families," and Building Youth Engagement Best Practices: Start with Assessment.

Judye Hering attended the adult literacy presentation on March 5 titled "Best Practices meeting on adult literacy volunteer tutors." The purpose of the presentation was to share research regarding the impact volunteers, tutors and mentors, have on adult learners.

Green Ridge House will be holding a Renter's Tax Credit (RTC) workshop for residents on March 11. Residents will review their rental and income information from the previous year and work with the service coordinator to fill out their 2021 RTC forms. If there is enough interest, there will be a second workshop.

Green Ridge House will be holding a COVID-19 vaccine clinic on March 22 for residents and Greenbelt essential staff. The vaccine administered will be the Moderna two shot vaccine. Nurses will be going door to door to administer vaccines for residents and a space will be reserved in the dining room to vaccinate staff.

Liz Park and Darren Stephenson attended the State Advisory Group for Juvenile Delinquency prevention meeting. Liz serves as the Chair of the Legislative Committee and reported to the group on current state legislation impacting juvenile justice issues. In particular, SB853/HB1157 Juvenile Law - Juvenile Justice Reform which has many provisions to reform the current juvenile justice system.

Darren Stephenson provided two online groups “Grand Love - grandparents raising grandkids” and “Parenting during Stressful Times.” Both groups offer support and cover topics such as emotional well-being, pandemic stress, creative ways to beat stress, discipline strategies, and effective ways to thrive under stress.
