Judye Hering attended the virtual COABE conference on Monday and Tuesday. COABE stands for Coalition on Adult Basic Education, which includes both ESOL and GED. Workshop sessions included: the virtual learner and its effects on the adult student, teaching strategies using Zoom, Best Practices, and motivating the student through COVID.

Green Ridge House had its first COVID-19 vaccine clinic on Monday, vaccinating 55 residents and a number of Greenbelt staff with the Moderna vaccine. Giant Pharmacy has confirmed it will be returning on Monday, April 19 to administer the second doses.

Darren Stephenson conducted the eighth session of “Grandlove.” Topics discussed were: Community Supports, four functions of behavior, effective parenting tips, and health and wellness information.

Liz Park participated in the National League of City’s Eviction Prevention Learning Lab Orientation Session. The Learning Lab is an 18 month process to assist cities in developing eviction prevention strategies. Terri Hruby, Planning and Community Development Director, is also on the city team.

Liz Park participated in the Prince George’s County System of Care team meeting. Maryland Coalition for Families gave a presentation on their Peer Support Program.

Museum Weekly Report For Week Ending March 26, 2021

Museum Activities

- Lecture Series: ongoing promotion of free April 8 lecture titled, The North End: Greenbelt's WWII Community. Forty people have registered via Eventbrite so far. This will be a virtual lecture. Registrants will be sent a Zoom link prior to the date. Held virtual meeting with speaker to discuss logistics, as well as, the possibility of offering a socially distanced walking tour of the North End. This would be by pre-reservation only.
 - Ongoing work to plan the July virtual lecture which will focus on Greenbelt's LGBTQ history. The lecture will probably be a panel of participants.
- Museum Newsletter: Composed, designed and emailed March Museum newsletter to 250+ member mailing list. Contents included promotion of lecture, notice from FOGM Board that they are seeking new Board members, and link to International Women's Day video.
- City Budget: ongoing work on brief presentation to Council for the Museum's budget meeting. Completed review of Museum portion of city budget with Assistant City Manager.
- Planning Meeting: met with Education/Volunteer Coordinator to map out when to begin offering in-person walking tours for groups of 10 or less and virtual house tours. Both would require reservation via Eventbrite. Discussed other upcoming programs such as Greenbelt Day Weekend and ways to adapt Retro Town Fair for possible in person event.
- Oral History Collection: Education/Volunteer Coordinator is contacting former City Manager Jim Giese to schedule Zoom interview.
- Correspondence with Angela Williams, whom we interviewed for Black History Month Program.
- FOGM support: ongoing oversight of FOGM office manager who is updating new database, processing mail from FOGM's PO Box, communicating with FOGM members, and making bank deposits soon.
- Meeting with Assistant City Manager.
