

Call Date/Time	Disposition	Street Number	Street Name	Incident Type	Summary
5/2/2022 10:29:47 AM	Report Written		Unit Plateau Pl	ATT SUICIDE COMBINED	The preliminary investigation revealed that as officers approached the residence and made contact with the adult male, they observed a knife with an approximately 6-inch blade in the subject's hand and gave him multiple commands to drop the knife. The man then rapidly exited the residence towards the officers and raised the weapon. At that time, both officers discharged their weapons resulting in the man sustaining injuries. He was transported to the hospital, and remains hospitalized in stable non-critical condition. The incident is approximately 21 seconds long from the first knock on the residence door to the last shot fired. Based on the initial round count of the officers' firearms, 10 shots were fired in total, with both officers firing five rounds each.
