Greenbelt Police Announce Death of Retired K-9 Dago

GREENBELT, MD- On March 28, 2022, retired K-9 Dago died at home with his former handler, Master Police Officer Robert Defibaugh by his side. K-9 Dago served the Greenbelt community from January 9, 2013, till his retirement on January 16, 2018. He had an outstanding career with the Greenbelt Police Department having numerous criminal apprehensions and drug alerts leading to large amounts of drug seizures and arrests for not only Greenbelt, but for other local, county, state, and federal agencies. After his retirement, Dago became the Defibaugh family dog.
