CITY NOTES

Greenbelt CARES

Week Ending January 20

Deji Ayoku and Darren Stephenson hosted the first segment of the U.N.I.T.E sessions. The sessions are being conducted to help individuals in the Prince George's County area get accustomed to the different help resources provided by agencies. Overall, the session went well; five youth were in attendance.

GAIL Program Community Case Workers, Joyce Kolenky and Brendy Garcia, attended a virtual training on Motivational Interviewing provided by the National Council for Mental Wellbeing. The training took place on Thursday, January 12, from 12 pm until 4 pm. Some of the topics discussed included the stages of change, addressing ambivalence and change talk. The training provided an overview of how to use motivational interviewing as a tool to promote behavioral change.

The GAIL program hosted a school supply distribution event at Springhill Lake Recreation Center on Tuesday, January 17, from 2 pm until 3 pm. Over 100 bags of school supplies donated by IHG were distributed to families in the community.

The GAIL program hosted Pink Pantry, a period product distribution event, on Wednesday, January 18, from 1 pm until 3 pm at the Springhill Lake Recreation Center. Over 60 families received pads, tampons and other menstruation products. Period products were obtained through the Greater DC Diaper Bank.

On Wednesday, January 18, Darren Stephenson participated in the PG County CINS (Children In Need of Supervision) Parent Panel along with several other community Mental Health Organizations. Darren presented this panel and parents the many programs that are being offered at Greenbelt CARES - free Family Counseling, Groups for Teens, Anger Management and Parenting Classes, etc. Community programs on the panel were Laurel and District Heights Youth Service Bureaus, PG Police Department, PG County Local Care Team and the PG Schools Family Institute.

Museum Weekly Report For Week Ending January 20, 2023

Museum Activities

- Programs:
 - Black History Month program: Virtual tour of the Jim Crow Museum on February 22 is being advertised. Museum staff has indicated that we will not be able to record the program and space is limited. Continuing to research possible speakers for Women's History Month.
 - Valentine's Day open house at the Museum house has been scheduled for February 5, with an inclement weather date of February 12. The display in the house will feature vintage valentines, decorations, funny ads, advice books, magazines, information about how Greenbelters celebrated, and more.
- Reparations Commission: Scheduling of the first meeting of the group in January is in process. The first meeting will be primarily an informal "meet and greet." Based on the preferences of many of the group members, it appears that the initial meeting will take place virtually in the last week of the month. In accordance with Maryland's Open Meetings Act, notice of the meeting will be submitted to the Greenbelt News Review.
- Possible Museum Move to Recreation Department: Met with Interim City Manager and Director of Recreation to discuss potential move/merger. A City Council work session on the topic is scheduled for January 25.
- Museum house: February Valentine's day display will be installed in the next week.
- Education and Volunteers: Staff met this week to begin planning a virtual information session for prospective volunteers as well as a volunteer training session to take place in February or March. A decent field trip to the Hirshhorn is also being discussed.
- Administration: Ongoing work on narrative of Museum accomplishments in FY 2023. Continuing to tally visitation and other Museum performance measures in preparation for budget book.
- Website: updated website and other social media accounts
- FOGM: Continuing to process donations sent in as a result of FOGM end of year fundraising effort. FOGM is still receiving donations for the operating fund via mail and an updated total ($4000+) will be provided in the next report. Discussed Rec merger.
