Museum Weekly Report For Week Ending June 23, 2023

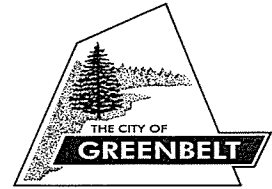

Museum Activities

- Programs:
 - Co-sponsoring an upcoming art activity at the July 4 celebration with the Rec Department as was done last year.
 - Planning for Labor Day and the Retro Town Fair is ongoing. We will reach out to students who may need community service hours to see if they would like to volunteer. Also, FOGM will feature information about 10A and tours of the space will be available in addition to tours of the Museum house.
 - Researching possible speakers for FY 2024 lecture series
- Reparations Commission: Meeting took place June 21 at Youth Center. Commission is finalizing an RFP seeking the help of consultant(s). Commissioners are beginning to use the Google drive set up to store information and resources. Ongoing monitoring of emails and answering questions.
 - Responded to inquiries about the commission from the general public. Continuing to share publicly available information, but nothing in addition to that.
- Tours: Gave tour to new Assistant Secretary for the MD Department of Housing and Community Development for the State of MD. Spoke with teacher at Georgetown Day School who is running a summer policy institute there. Visit and tour planned for July 5. Additional walking tours have been added to Eventbrite during summer months, including the North End tour.
- Museum house: Working with Education/Volunteer Coordinator to reopen museum house on Sundays in July and August. Outreach: Education and Volunteer Coordinator's talk at Greenbelt National Park's campfire circle took place on June 10.
- Archives: Met with researcher regarding Greenbelt's early gardens and allotment plots. Responded to question from citizen about book restoration.
- Admin: Utilized new finance system to request checks
- FOGM: Monthly Board meeting was June 19. Directors are planning to share information about 10A with the public over Labor Day weekend.
