Handicap Placard Thefts

We have experienced a recent increase in the theft of handicap placards being stolen from parked vehicles. In most instances the suspect(s) have broken out a window and removed the placards from the rear view mirror. In some instances the vehicles were not parked in handicapped designated spaces. If you are not parked in a handicapped space, we recommend that you remove the placard from view. Also, please report any suspicious person(s) who appear to be looking into or possibly breaking into parked vehicles. The Greenbelt Police Department can be contacted at 301-474-7200.
