Abused Kitten Found in Basement of Apartment Building

On Friday, December 9th, Greenbelt Animal Control personnel responded to a report of a possibly abused kitten in the basement of an apartment building in the 6100 block of Springhill Lane. The kitten was located with an electrical cord tied around its neck, with the cord itself plugged into an electrical outlet. The kitten did not appear to be injured, but looked somewhat malnourished and neglected. It is currently being cared for in our animal shelter.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Greenbelt Animal Control at 301-474-6124.
